

FREE MATERIALS FROM OUTSIDE
ORGANIZATIONS

Free materials (books, pamphlets, charts, maps, calendars, films, slides, exhibits, and the like) may be accepted for use in the schools provided they meet the following standards:

1. The material must contribute positively and effectively to the promotion without distortion of the educational program approved by the District.
2. The name of the donating firm may appear, but not with such emphasis or repetition as to subordinate the educational content.
3. The materials must be evaluated in accordance with policy EFA(LOCAL), for instructional content, and policy FMA(LOCAL), for non-instructional content.
4. The principal purpose of the literature must not be promotion or sales.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

With the approval of the principal, nonprofit youth-related organizations, such as Scouts, Little League, soccer clubs, and the YMCA or YWCA, may distribute announcements to students concerning activities of those organizations. The manner of distribution will be determined by the principal.
